

We would like to take this opportunity to welcome you to our practice by providing history about the team you have entrusted to share in what we hope is a long and healthy relationship.

Milltown Family Physicians (MFP) formed in 1980, when Dr. John Miller began a solo practice in Wooster. Now we have six physicians which includes Dr. Amy S. Jolliff (1991), Dr. Christopher B. Ranney and Dr. Eric A. Smith (2007), Dr. Paul R. Nielsen (2010), Dr. John E. Schinner (2017) and Dr. Chalon J. Fike (2023). In 2014, the practice underwent a major renovation, adding more than 4,000 additional square feet due to growth and desire to maintain modernized care with small office feel. MFP has had the assistance of nurse practitioners and currently has three A.P.R.N's who assist with preventative and nursing home care.

The physicians who make up the current MFP group each have special areas of interest that bring something unique to the practice. Dr. Jolliff serves as Wayne County Coroner and Co-Director at Wooster Hospital Community Care Network. Dr. Ranney is additionally board certified in sports medicine, serving as the team physician for many local area athletics. Dr. Smith is trained in both acupuncture and hypnosis therapy and specializes in women's health. He also serves as the medical director of Wayne County Health Department. Dr. Nielsen specializes in preventative medicine and mental health issues. He serves as Director at three nursing home facilities in Wooster namely; Devine Rehabilitation and Nursing at Honeytown, Avenue at Wooster Care and Rehabilitation Center and Smithville Western Care Center. At Wooster Community Hospital, Dr. Nielsen is the Director of Pulmonary Rehabilitation, Hospitalist and Co-Director of Community Care Network. Dr. Schinner is on the credentialing committee at Wooster Community Hospital. Dr. Fike, in addition to being a family practice physician, he has had a couple years' experience in Urgent Care medicine.

Milltown Family Physicians currently serves about 20,000 patients. We are dedicated to meeting our patients' needs. Its staff sees 120-150 patients daily in the office, and the practice has many in office procedures and labs. Our mission is to be a community oriented independent practice committed to the highest quality patient focused care of all ages. As Staff and Providers, we choose to promote the traditional doctor- patient relationship throughout a lifetime.
